

DECLARATION OF RESIDENCY

Purpose of this form. Film production companies claiming a tax credit based on wages or salaries paid to New Mexico residents for work performed on a film produced in New Mexico must have each such employee complete this declaration of residency. The film production company must retain this form in its records.

Name	Social Security Number
Permanent Residence - physical address
City, State and Zip Code	Telephone Number
Title of Film Project

1. Are you presently a resident of New Mexico? See Residency below. _____
2. Do you anticipate changing your residency status during the time that you are expected to work on the film project? _____
3. What evidence have you provided the film production company to show residence in New Mexico? You must provide at least one of the following.
 - ☐ A valid New Mexico driver's license.
Enter the driver's license number. _____
 - ☐ A current New Mexico voter registration.
Enter the registering county. _____
 - ☐ A copy of last year's New Mexico personal income tax return.
 - ☐ Other. Indicate type. If you cannot provide one of the previous three forms of evidence, other evidence may be acceptable. For example, a minor may present parent's proof of residency. Other evidence must be clear and convincing, and show intent to maintain a permanent residence in New Mexico. Proof of ownership of property or establishing an abode in New Mexico is not acceptable unless supplemented by other information showing intent.

Residency. To be a resident of New Mexico for tax purposes you must be domiciled in New Mexico. Your domicile is your permanent home; it is the place to which you intend to return after any temporary absence. You can have only one domicile. A change in domicile is established only by establishing a physical presence in a new location with an intent to abandon your old domicile and make a home in the new location permanently or indefinitely.

I declare under penalty of perjury that I have examined this document and to the best of my knowledge and belief it is true, correct and complete.
